

DENNIS H. NASON

Chairman and CEO

Nason & Nason

www.nasonsearch.com

■ Education: Degree in corporate financial management, Harvard Business School; M.A. in law and diplomacy and in economics, Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University; B.A. in physics, Washington and Jefferson College

■ Career highlights: In 1994, Nason founded Nason and Nason, the largest privately held executive recruiting firm in Miami. A serial entrepreneur, he successfully established several ventures within the international financial services field.

Nason led the management of Wells Fargo, Banco Nacion Argentina and Credit Suisse in Miami, building on a successful Latin American banking career with Citibank and Wells Fargo in Argentina, Panama and Mexico.

Nason takes great pride in being an active member of the community and has served on numerous community boards. He was elected president of the Florida International Banker's Association, was founding president of the World Trade Center and elected to the WTC Hall of Fame. He was cited as one of 101 Most Influential People in South Florida by South Florida CEO magazine.

Nason is an avid writer and has had numerous articles and editorials published worldwide.

■ Personal note: He speaks fluent Spanish and has nine grandchildren.